Station WIND - Fridays (start October 8) 1:30 - 1:45 p.m.

LADY MAKE-BELIEVE - a series of dramatizations of the best loved stories for children in the middle elementary grades, presented in cooperation with station KOAC. Each week, Lady Make-Believe takes your boys and girls on a trip to the Land of Everywhere, in which the strangest things happen, and for fifteen minutes visit again with the beloved characters which are a part of every child's story background. TEACHERS HANDBOOK AVAILABLE.

Station WJJD - Fridays (start October 8) 2:30 - 2:45 p.m.

BATTLE OF BOOKS - do you know that the BATTLE OF BOOKS program was the FIRST quiz program for children on the air? Do you know that the BATTLE OF BOOKS program has been called "a prime motivator" of reading in upper elementary grades? Have you ever watched your students as they hear their questions asked the team in the studio? One of the most popular, (and most effective) programs of its kind, THE BATTLE OF BOOKS is not only a "motivator" but it is FUN! Questions may be sent to the Radio Council or the Library Division; questions ma[illegible] cards are a supply item and may be ordered from the Division of Supplies. Presented in cooperation with the Division of Libraries. TEACHERS HANDBOOK (with sample script) AVAILABLE.

Station WBEZ is in the process of re-modelling and re-moval to the new high band (92.5) megacycles. We expect to have the station in operation shortly after the opening of the new semester. When WBEZ (FM) returns to the air, it will release a complete schedule, 9:15 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., of important educational programs for in-school and general listening. Many of the above programs will be heard twice on station WBEZ; news casts, network news commentators, music, and many other special programs for your classrooms will be released. Watch future PROGRAM BULLETINS and the SUPERINTENDENT'S BULLETIN for further releases about your NEW STATION WBEZ.
